INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

All manuscripts and correspondence, not previously published, simultaneously submitted, or already accepted for publication elsewhere, are to be submitted to the Editor-in-Chief, Herner Sæverot at Nordic-Studies-in-Education@hib.no. Please send manuscripts only by e-mail. Manuscripts submitted in other ways will not be considered. NSE accepts articles written in Danish, English, Norwegian or Swedish. We recommend that manuscripts do not exceed 55,000 characters (including blanks). Submitted manuscripts must be checked for language, including but not limited to vocabulary, syntax and style. Manuscripts not language-checked will not be considered for review.

MANUSCRIPTS

Please use these simple guidelines when preparing your manuscript:

- Please be consistent. The same elements should be keyed in exactly the same way throughout the manuscript.
- Use a hyphen only to hyphenate compound words.
- Enter only one space after the full stop at the end of a sentence.
- When emphasizing words, please use italics. Do not underline.
- Do not justify your text; use a ragged right-hand margin.
- Use a double hyphen (--) to indicate a dash in text.
- The space bar should only be used as a word separator. Use TAB when indenting paragraphs or separating columns in tables.
- Please submit graphic elements (e.g. images) as separate files. Please prepare for subsequent formatting of all graphic elements, as instructed by the editors.
- Use double spacing throughout with margins of at least 2.5 cm.

For further information and support regarding manuscripts, please send mail to: Nordic-Studies-in-Education@hib.no.

Begin each of the sections in the following order on separate pages: title page, abstract and key words, text, acknowledgement(s), references, tables, and figure legends. Number the pages consecutively, beginning with the title page.

Use standard abbreviations. Any non-standard abbreviations (to be avoided if possible) should be explained in the text the first time they are used. Avoid abbreviations and notes in the title. Quantities and units should be expressed in accordance with the recommendations of the International System of Units (Système International d'Unités).
TITLE PAGE

The title page shall contain: (1) a short, concise but informative title, (2) the full names of the author(s) and the respective affiliations, (3) name and full address of the author to whom proofs should be sent. Include a telephone number and an e-mail address.

ABSTRACT

An abstract not exceeding 100 words must be presented on the second page. The abstract should state briefly the objective of the investigation, basic procedures, main findings, and principal conclusions. List no more than five key words.

REFERENCES

Note that references must always include a Digital Object Identifier (DOI) for sources that have one. The DOI URL address is always placed at the end of the reference. To find out if a reference has a DOI, please do a quick search on http://search.crossref.org/, using the title or author name.

A DOI is a serial code and an international standard for reliable identification, used to uniquely identify objects. The DOI system is particularly used for electronic documents, such as journal articles. For more information, please visit https://www.doi.org/factsheets/DOIKeyFacts.html.

Example of DOI code:

TABLES and FIGURES

Tables and figures should be submitted in a separate file while the position of the table/figure is marked in the original manuscript. Number tables consecutively with Arabic numerals and give each table a short, descriptive heading. Give each column a short or abbreviated heading. Place explanatory matter in footnotes to the table, not in the heading. Explain in the footnotes all non-standard abbreviations used in the table. Omit internal horizontal and vertical lines. If data from another published or unpublished source are used, obtain permission and acknowledge fully. Tables should be self-explanatory and understandable without reference to the text of the article.

PROOFS

One set of proofs will be sent to the first author. It should be corrected and returned immediately by express mail or e-mail. Printer's errors should be marked in red, and other alterations in blue. Alternatively track changes may be used. Authors will be liable to pay for any alterations not due to printer's errors which they make.
